New Orleans, LA

New Orleans Jazz Afternoon

$90 USD

This afternoon, enjoy a jazz brunch at one of New Orleans' most famous restaurants, The Court of Two Sisters. Relax and enjoy the live jazz music as you soak in the centuries old atmosphere and the largest courtyard in the French Quarter. Indulge in the expansive brunch buffet, with over 60 items available, including made to order omelets and Eggs Benedict. After lunch, embark on a scenic cruise aboard the Steamboat Natchez. Enjoy a narrated harbor tour, highlighting the port's maritime history. As the paddlewheel boat makes its way back to its French Quarter mooring, listen to the enchanting sounds of a live jazz band. Duration: Approximately 4.5 hours. Please note a minimum of 10 passengers is required. Transportation is not included.

Memphis, TN

Memphis Music History Tour with Dinner

$65 USD

Begin with a visit to Sun Studio, perhaps the most famous recording studio in the world. A guided tour will introduce you to the location that began the careers of musical legends such as Johnny Cash, B.B. King, Jerry Lee Lewis, and of course, Elvis Presley. It was here at Sun Studio in 1954 where Elvis first began recording commercially, changing the music world forever. View the priceless memorabilia, listen to audio clips from recording sessions, and visit the record store and soda shop at this iconic recording studio. Next, visit the Rock N' Soul Museum, located on the famous Beale Street. Explore the museum at your own pace, with a self guided audio tour that highlights Memphis' musical journey. Complete your tour with dinner at a local restaurant. Duration: Approximately 5 hours. Please note a minimum of 10 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
